V. PRESIDENT'S TIME:

- John P. gave the members who were not present at the last meeting the beautiful personalized plaques he made in recognition of their club participation. He reiterated how thankful he was for making last year successful and how much he appreciated everyone.

VI. OLD BUSINESS:

- Nelly S. had information on purchasing flags for the cars. She passed around an order form with a purchase breakdown.
- Larry G. had not heard back from the band that performed at last year's car show. He did speak with the band that performed at his and Erica's wedding. Their cost would be $400.00. John P. spoke with the band, 10th Street West. Their cost would be $450.00. He also spoke with a band from Los Angeles. There are 3 female lead singers, a keyboardist, and drummer. They would charge $500.00.
- The car show committee met and would like to have whatever charity the club chooses displayed on the flyers and whether to support two charities or one.
- The club voted to support one charity and chose the American Cancer Society.

VII. NEW BUSINESS:

- Stu C. stated he and Jo had sent thank you notes to Peggy Sue's and the Route 66 museum. He asked the club for approval for him to purchase the brick to be displayed with the club information at the museum. The club thanked and approved his purchase.
- Anita R. thanked the club for the flowers she received for her recent surgery.
- Jim P. thanked everyone for buying Girl Scout cookies from his daughter.

- Sheri H. had information for Lancaster Rotary Club's event at Willow Springs Raceway. Jack E. will put on the website.

VIII. NCCC:

- Howard S. stated the convention in Topeka, Kansas has the registration form on line.
- NCCC has a scholarship fund. The application is on the website.
- NCCC has application for future Corvette owners available for $10.00 per child. NCCC will give an annual give to future members.

IX. SUNSHINE REPORT:

- Darlene A. announced the birthdays and anniversaries for February. See current newsletter for list.

X. ACTIVITIES:

- Stu C. thanked John P. for the plaques and the awesome job he does for the club. He also thanked his lovely wife Jo, for assisting him with his VP duties.
- Stu C. and Jo circulated an activity interest sheet that he would like returned with feedback for future events and activity list for February, March, and April.
- Darlene A. stated she and Augie went to Peggy Sue's over the weekend and how the restaurant gave accolades to our club and welcomed us back.
- Stu C. said the next dinner social will be at Giovanni's and there will be a special dessert.
- John and Lorri will be hosting a Super Bowl party this Sunday at 1:00 p.m. John P. stated there will also be some games.
- Stu C. encouraged everyone to go to the Racer's Edge event on 2/25. Bob's Big Boy will not take reservations. Sheri H. suggested Fuddruckers in Burbank. Stu will check it out.
- 3/17 – Green bag auction. Stu had booked the Greenhouse Café but it was decided to have at Anita and Rennie's house after Rennie volunteered their home. It will start at 5:00 p.m. with dinner and followed by the auction. Rennie will price the dinner and determine how much it will cost. Members will bring a dessert. There is no set amount for the auction gift. Gift is to be brought in a bag with the estimated amount and gender on the bag.
- John P. addressed Gambler's Classic in Laughlin. Sheri H. announced the girls are wearing poodle skirts to go along with the 50's theme. John P. stated only 1 car from Corvettes of Bakersfield attended AVCC's car show.
- John P. encouraged members to participate in Corvettes West car show in Rancho Cucamonga on 4/1/12 and other car shows south of AV. Supporting other club's car shows will hopefully draw them to support AVCC. This car show has proceeds going to Ronald McDonald House. John and Lorri also save the pull tabs from cans which are donated to Ronald McDonald House.
- Stu C. encouraged a caravan of at least 15 cars for this event.
- John P. stated Lorri P. sends items to soldiers after checking a website to see what is needed.
- Nelly S. stated that sample toiletries given at hotels can be given to the shelter.
